

1990 Summary of Avocado Research, page 2
Avocado Research Advisory Committee
University of California, Riverside

AVOCADO BLACKSTREAK

HOWARD D. OHR

Periodic isolations for fungi from blackstreak affected trees continue. We have isolated three fungi Cladosporium sp. Verticillium lateritium and a Fusarium sp. We do not know if any of these are the cause of the disease but all three have been inoculated into trees at the South Coast Research Station. We are awaiting results.